

ATV Beach & Sand Dunes Ride

- 1 Day Trip from the city of Veracruz -

Trip Highlights:

- Exciting Day of riding ATVs down the Beach and over Tall Sand Dunes
- Lunch at a private Family's Home
- Swimming in a Slow-moving River

Just north of the city of Veracruz, you will find long stretches of beaches with the Gulf of México's warm waters gently lapping up onto the shore. Off in the distance down the beach rises another sea—a vast sea of tall sand dunes dramatically towering over the flat ocean beach. The steep dunes seem to continue in all directions in a roller coaster of one hill after another. This is the perfect place for an excellent adventurous day of riding on all-terrain 4 wheel vehicles (ATVs). No experience necessary.

The Itinerary

You will be picked up in the morning at your hotel in Veracruz by one of our local bilingual (English/Spanish) guides. He will take you to the town of Chachalacas where you will be given a brief introductory lesson in how to operate your ATV. Then you will start your journey riding through this small seaside town and onto the beach where you can zoom down the flat coastal hard-packed sand dodging the ocean waves until you reach the "sea of dunes." There will be plenty of time to get photos and video of the great ocean views from high up on the precipices of these sandy mountains. Your professional ATV guide(s) will lead you up and over through the maze of seemingly endless dunes.

Your group will stop at a private home along a clear meandering stream where a traditional Mexican lunch will be prepared fresh for you (included). As an added bonus, you will have the opportunity to cool off, swim, and play in the stream. After this relaxing break, you will again mount your ATV's for more fun riding adventures. At the conclusion of the ride, you can wash up and change your clothes. Your guide will then return you to your hotel in Veracruz.
