- Travel over Unpaved Backroads
- Jungle Hiking
- Swimming under Tropical Waterfalls
- Visit to the lakeside town of Catemaco

Tropical paradise is waiting for you less than 3 hours south of the city of Veracruz. The area known as the Los Tuxtlas Region is colored in green, green, and then more green. Dormant cone-shaped volcanic hills, thick jungle forests, hidden waterfalls, slow-moving meandering streams, and several large lakes comprise this tropical and tranquil region of southern Veracruz. On this fun trip you will find yourself surrounded in rugged rain forest jungles as you experience a day of excellent outdoor adventures .

The Itinerary

You will be picked up in the morning at your hotel in Veracruz by one of our local bilingual (English/Spanish) guides and will travel approximately 2½ hours south to the lakeside town of Catemaco. After a short rest stop in town, your journey continues overland on a scenic ride around Lake Catemaco to a small river. It is there everyone can play in the shallow clear waters and also have a picnic lunch. From there your group will paddle in kayaks down the river and into Lake Catemaco to a small village. After storing the kayaks, you will travel by land up a rugged road into the green volcanic hills to a private ranch hidden deep in the jungle forest. Walking trails have been carved out to lead you to three magnificent waterfalls each with a crystal clear pool below. The day is yours to swim, relax, and enjoy the tranquility of this hidden oasis. You may want to let the power of one of the waterfalls massage your body. Later your group will return to Catemaco to explore and shop. In the late afternoon, your personal trip guide will take you back to the city of Veracruz.
